
Each point is one reported biological library. Open = control; filled = infected.
PCA uses saved variance−stabilized coordinates; distance uses all count−filtered features.